Author and Illustrator of Blue Mountains book

'Leonard the Lyrebird' to visit our school

We're very excited to have Blue Mountains children's book author

Jodie McLeod and illustrator Eloise Short (Mr Toohey's wife)

visit Springwood Public School

on Wednesday Morning 21st August 2019

to read and talk about their book Leonard the Lyrebird.

Set in the Blue Mountains and featuring the landscape and animals we all know so well.

Leonard the Lyrebird is a story about friendship, bravery and being yourself.

We're thrilled to have Jodie and Eloise share it with us.

If you'd like to purchase a signed copy of the book,

head to www.etsy.com/shop/LeonardtheLyrebird

please apply the code LOCAL upon checkout to waive postage fees.

Please include a message to say you're from Springwood PS and Jodie will bring your book to school for your child to collect.

If you'd like a personalised message in your book, include a note to Jodie when you make your purchase.

[OPTIONAL: Books will also be available for purchase and signing at school on the day. Hardcover books are $25, soft cover books are $17. Cash and cards accepted.]

Here's a little preview of the story:

"Leonard is friends with everyone, and boy can he sing! But will his singing talents impress the one friend he really wants? Join this charismatic Blue Mountains bird in his search for the song that will change his life..."

And here's what award-winning local children's book author Tohby Riddle had to say about the book:

"Featuring the enchanting landscapes of the Blue Mountains, and one of its most magical residents, the artful story of Leonard the Lyrebird is like a precious slice of the Blue Mountains itself."
